Major General James L. Brown
Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
Department of the Air Force
Washington, D. C. 20330

Dear General Brown:

On behalf of the Director of Central Intelligence, I am pleased to advise that your nomination of [redacted] to serve as chief of the Personnel and Industrial Security Branch of the Community Security Group has been accepted. [redacted] brings an impressive background of experience and accomplishments to the task. I look forward to having him on my staff.

An early reporting date for [redacted] would be most helpful in furthering the work of the Community Security Group. I defer to the Air Force for a specific date, and suggest that our respective administrative staffs contact one another to make the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Gambino
Chairman
